

N. VROUYR
ANNO 1917

Afshar Soffreh

The soffreh is a dining cloth covering the floor when food is served.

Afshari tribes have Turkish roots and played an important part in the Persian political landscape when the Safavids came to power in the 16th century. They were part of the Qizilbash federation. They live all around Iran, but mainly in Kuzistan, the Kerman area and also in Azerbaïdjan and in Khorassan.